Corporate Program

The Corporate Member Experience

CFR's Corporate Program provides a unique forum where business leaders can interact with distinguished thinkers and practitioners in government, policy, academia, and the private sector through exclusive events and engagement with CFR experts. With the guidance of Blair W. Effron, cofounder of Centerview Partners, vice chair of CFR's Board of Directors, and chair of the Committee on Corporate Affairs, the Corporate Program offers a range of benefits for executives and young professionals throughout your organization.

Enhance Global Outlook and Professional Ties

- Attend not-for-attribution sessions that allow candid, substantive discussions
- Receive invitations to hundreds of members-only events each year—held virtually and in New York, Washington, DC, and other major cities across the United States and around the world—featuring speakers such as U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services Xavier Becerra, U.S. Secretary of State Antony J. Blinken, Representative of the United States to the United Nations Linda Thomas-Greenfield, founder of Bridgewater Associates Ray Dalio, President and CEO of Lockheed Martin James D. Taiclet, Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Rochelle P. Walensky, former President of Ukraine Petro Poroshenko, and Director of National Intelligence Avril Haines
- Connect with senior leaders from the public and private sectors

Access CFR's Intellectual Capital

- Attend exclusive briefings with CFR fellows, the topical and regional experts within CFR's David Rockefeller Studies Program
- Participate in roundtable discussions, advisory groups, and workshops
- Access policy analyses, rapid-response briefings, and publications

Corporate Events and Resources

Annual Corporate Conference

This yearly summit on issues at the intersection of business and foreign policy has recently featured Nasdaq President and Chief Executive Officer Adena Friedman, former President and CEO of the New York Federal Reserve William C. Dudley, former Director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention Tom Frieden, and Program Leader, Principles for Sustainable Insurance Initiative at the UN Environment Program Butch Bacani.

Meetings and Roundtables

Join Corporate Program roundtable discussions on topics of particular interest to business, such as cybersecurity, finance, geopolitical risk, and trade. Virtual meetings allow executives to participate in CFR programming regardless of their location. Executives from member companies are also invited to share their expertise and thought leadership as panelists and presiders at CFR meetings.

Special Events

Attend private receptions and invitation-only dinners with CFR experts, current and former government officials, business leaders, and noted academics.

Fellow Briefings

Engage with a CFR fellow on a specific topic or region in a briefing that can be held in person or virtually.

Professional Development Opportunities

Through the Corporate Program's Young Professionals Briefing series, early career professionals can participate in CFR's foreign policy conversations.

Founders and President's Circle-level member companies can recognize promising management track executives as "Corporate Leaders," granting them participation in Stephen M. Kellen Term Member Program activities for two years.

Member Services Portal

View and register for upcoming meetings, manage your interest and expertise profile, and access premium Foreign Affairs content and the magazine's full archives at cfr.org/corporatelogin.
