

Donna Redel

Donna Redel is a NYC based advisor-investor focusing on financial technology, blockchain, and emerging technologies. Donna is a professor of regulatory issues around blockchain-digital assets-AI. She was the managing director of The World Economic Forum, the foremost global organization combining business, political, academic, and other leaders of society committed to improving the state of the world. Ms. Redel was the first woman to chair a USA exchange, The Commodity Exchange. Donna developed and is teaching at Fordham Law School two courses on Blockchain-DeFi-Crypto and joined the Wharton faculty to teach Blockchain-Crypto Currencies-Digital Assets. Donna is an active participant in the startup community with New York Angels, serving as a board member and chair of the Education Committee. Highlights of Donna's memberships are The Council on Foreign Relations, the NYS Committee for the Advancement in Women's Leadership in Financial Services, INATBA (an EU policy focused blockchain association), the MoMA Photography Committee, an Advisor to Securitize and the co-founder of The Fordham Law Blockchain Regulatory Symposium. The focus of her public service efforts are the arts, health and promoting women's leadership. She has a J.D. from Fordham Law School, an MBA from Columbia University and a BA from Barnard College (Columbia).