

Heather Conley

Heather Conley is a senior advisor to Evenflow Macro, having previously served as the sixth president of the German Marshall Fund of the United States. Prior to this, Ms. Conley served as senior vice president for Europe, Russia, and Eurasia at the Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS). She is a recognized expert on Europe, Russia and the Arctic region, as well as NATO and EU issues, the conflict in Ukraine, and Sino-Russian cooperation. From 2001-2005, Ms. Conley served as deputy assistant secretary of state in the Bureau of European and Eurasian Affairs with responsibilities for U.S. bilateral relations with Northern and Central Europe. Ms. Conley began her career at the U.S. Department of State in the Bureau of Political-Military Affairs and served as special assistant to the coordinator of U.S. assistance to Russia and the post-Soviet space. She then went on to serve as a senior associate at the international consulting firm led by former U.S. deputy secretary of state Richard L. Armitage. Ms. Conley received her B.A. in international studies from West Virginia Wesleyan College and her M.A. in international relations from the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS).