

Neil Shenai

Neil Shenai is an Economist at the International Monetary Fund (IMF). Prior to joining IMF staff, he was a member of the career civil service of the Office of International Affairs at the United States Department of the Treasury, where he was senior advisor to Under Secretary David Malpass (2018-2019); financial attaché to Mexico and Central America (2016-2018); and international economist (2015- 2016). Shenai is the author of two peer-reviewed academic books, including Social Finance: Shadow Banking during the Global Financial Crisis (Palgrave MacMillan, 2018) and Escaping the Governance Trap: Economic Reform in the Northern Triangle (Palgrave MacMillan, 2022). He holds a PhD and MA from Johns Hopkins SAIS, where he served as a Lecturer of International Economics. At CFR, he is co-chair of the Emerging Markets Term Member Forum and member of Washington Program Committee.