

CFR Virtual Symposium Agenda

Ending Human Trafficking in the 21st Century

This symposium is cosponsored with CFR's Women and Foreign Policy Program.

This symposium is on the record.

Monday, June 28, 2021

12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. (EDT) Virtual Meeting

Virtual Keynote Session: A Conversation With Guy Ryder

Guy Ryder will discuss the economic cost of forced labor and highlight the ways in which governments and the private sector can join forces to combat human trafficking.

Speaker:

Guy Ryder, Director General, International Labor Organization

Presider:

Nicholas Kristof, Columnist, New York Times; CFR Member

Monday, June 28, 2021

1:15 p.m. to 2:15 p.m. (EDT) Virtual Meeting

Session II: The Private Sector—Global Supply Chains and Labor Trafficking

Panelists will discuss how labor trafficking in global supply chains intersects with people's daily lives—from the products they buy and the food they consume to the clothes they wear. It will also highlight the structural factors—including poverty, inequality, conflict, and migration—that exacerbate the risks of labor trafficking, with a focus on the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Speakers:

Anita Ramasastry, Henry M. Jackson Endowed Professor of Law, and Director, Sustainable International Development Graduate Program, University of Washington School of Law; Member, UN Working Group on Business and Human Rights

Brent Wilton, Principal, Tuhana Business and Human Rights; Former Global Director, Workplace Rights and Human Rights, The Coca-Cola Company

Presider:

Rana Foroohar, Global Business Columnist and Associate Editor, Financial Times; CFR Member